There were several reports of the age-old game “knock on ginger” received this past week. While it is a very old game it can also constitute the criminal offence of Mischief should the homeowner wish to lodge a formal complaint. Please be aware that your seemingly innocent actions may be against the law.

There were also numerous complaints received about unlocked vehicles being rummaged through. Once again we can only stress that all vehicles should be locked when left unattended.

Lastly, we wish to remind dog owners that unless you are in the off-leash park, all dogs are required to be leashed when out in public.

We would like to remind everyone once again that the Speed Limits in School Zones is now 30km/h. Sign are continuing to be erected.
