

Weyburn Police Service
Media Release November 8, 2015 to November 15, 2015

The Weyburn Police Service would like to remind all new drivers of the legal requirements. Unless you have a valid Class 5 driver's licence you are required to drive with someone who is qualified to be a supervising driver. What this means is that if you have a Class 7 licence you cannot drive alone.

The Weyburn PS would also like to remind the driver's that there is a legal requirement to STOP when directed to do so by a School Patrol Crossing Guard. These very dedicated school children provide a very valuable service to ensure the safety of all users of the road. When they are displaying the STOP paddle all drivers are legally obligated to stop. A driver found in violation of that law can face a substantial fine.
