

BULLYING AND PUBLIC FIGHTING

4. Fighting

1. No person shall:
 - (a) participate in a fight;
 - (b) encourage in any way a person involved in a fight; or
 - (c) record, photograph or distribute any videotape, recording, or photograph of any person involved in a fight.
2. Any fight that occurs as part of an organized sporting event is exempted from the application of this section.
3. Any recording, photograph, distribution or publication of any videotape, recording or photograph of any person involved in a fight is exempted from the application of this section where it was that of a person engaged in news gathering:
 - (a) for any newspaper or other paper containing public news: or
 - (b) for a broadcaster licensed by the Canadian Radio-Television Commission to carry on broadcasting transmitting undertaking;

And such recordings, photograph distribution or publication was reasonable in the circumstances and was necessary for or incidental to ordinary news gathering.

5. Bullying

1. No person shall bully another person in any public place.
2. No person shall bully another person through written or electronic communication.

6. Offence By Young Person

The provisions of The Summary Offences Procedures Act, 1990 apply to any offence committed or alleged to have been committed by a young person under this Bylaw.

7. Penalty

1. Any person who contravenes any provision of this Bylaw is guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction and liable:
 - (a) to a fine of not more than $2,000;
 - (b) in addition, or as an alternative to a fine imposed pursuant to clause (a), the court may order the person, or young person and their legal guardian, to attend an anti-bullying course recommended by the prosecutor, or both.
2. When a police officer issues a summary ticket for a violation of this Bylaw, that police officer may enter on the ticket the amount of $500 which, if paid within the time prescribed, will be accepted as a guilty plea to the offence.
3. Any person who is in default of payment of a fine imposed pursuant to this section may be liable to a term of imprisonment not exceeding ninety days.
