WPS thanks local man for life-saving emergency response

WEYBURN - The Weyburn Police Service is honoured to recognize Brendan Gall with a Certificate of Appreciation for his quick response during an incident on May 5 at a local restaurant that helped save a life.

Chief Jamie Blunden presented Mr. Gall the certificate last week at the Wor-Kin Shop, where he is a valued employee. The WPS sincerely thanks Mr. Gall for his brave and knowledgeable actions during the emergency that merits this award.

Weyburn is proud to have community members like Mr. Gall who exemplify genuine concern and take impressive and safe action during emergency situations.
